

MEMBERSHIP REGISTRATION

The Oconto County Historical Society, Inc. (OCHS), an affiliate of the Wisconsin Historical Society, operates the Beyer Home & Carriage Museum in Oconto, the Copper Culture Museum in Oconto, and the Holt & Balcom Logging Camp Museum in Lakewood.

Your membership supports museum operations, including the preservation and display of various artifacts and exhibits, and also provides you with an opportunity to participate in OCHS events and activities. In addition, you will receive an annual membership card which provides you with free admission to all three museums, two OCHS newsletters each year, and an invitation to attend our annual meeting held each November.

We look forward to your membership with the Oconto County Historical Society. If you have an area of interest or expertise and would like to volunteer your time, please let us know by completing your membership information below. Your membership can be renewed at the beginning of each calendar year.
